Angélique Tenin

Summary

About me - Angélique Tenin

After a career in project management, it's alongside bride and groom, that I find complete fulfillment by organizing exceptional weddings.

Bringing my creativity, my motivation, and attention to detail at the service of your wedding is the result and fulfillment I aspire to in my passion-driven profession.

As a wedding planner at Shades Waves agency, I emphasize excellence and quality throughout the organization of your wedding.

All events are tailored, and the follow-up is adapted to your needs and your wishes, from conception to realization.

Each provider is carefully selected from the best in my team. Always ready to take on the challenge to enhance your wedding, I offer a comprehensive turnkey organization with personalized support.

Shades Waves agency - wedding & event planner

I joined the Shades Waves agency with several wedding planners throughout France for its professional values, methodology, and creativity. We are more than just wedding planners. Our agency embodies an ethic of elegance and creativity, promising an organization that meets your expectations.

From the first meeting to your D-Day, according to your desires and tastes, we will propose an elegant, chic, and refined scenography, tailored to your image. Your wedding as you dreamed it... in complete serenity!

Customized, personalized, and professional services, responding with precision and loyalty to your desires.

Our services

Complete organization

I take care of everything down to the smallest details and I take you along throughout the preparations as your sole point of contact, allowing you to experience your D-Day in a serene atmosphere.

This package includes:

- Free and non-binding discovery meeting
- Preparation of a personalized quote and signing of a service contract
- Creation of a retro-planning and a forecasted budget
- Sharing of a personalized inspiration board (mood-board) for the ambiance and decoration of your wedding
- Regular physical and video meetings to discuss in detail the organization of your wedding and simplified communication to address your questions and concerns thanks to the Slack application
- Quotes from selected service providers, management of the D-Day schedule, technical meetings with caterers, DJs, florists...
- Organization of all tasks detailed via the WeddingPlan software, to which you have personalized access
- A few days before the D-Day, a full rehearsal with the bride and groom and service providers will be organized
- Access to our address book and our network of service providers
- Event management via WeddingPlan: budget tracking, a dedicated website for your guests with all informations about your wedding
- 24/7 access to the WeddingPlan software to track the organization of your wedding with peace of mind!
- Creation of a personalized website for your guests to respond online quickly and saving time for you
- Creation of your seating plan with ease and speed

This service can be complemented by the scenography-decoration option, wedding designer.

The price may vary depending on the number of days of organization (welcome dinner, brunch...), and I propose to discuss this with you over coffee or via video if you are not located in the region.

Our services

D-Day Organization

You have already planned a significant part of your wedding, and all that's left is a dose of tranquility and serenity to finalize your organization, along with a reassuring presence on the D-Day?

Opt for the coordination of your D-Day and let me take the reins on this magical and emotional day through effective coordination of the service providers you would have carefully selected beforehand.

- Three months before your wedding, we will organize a meeting to understand your project
- Review your overall planning, and refine the last details together, allowing you to benefit from our expertise, advice, and creative ideas.
- We also double check the adherence to the contractual commitments established with the service providers.
- After familiarizing ourselves with your service providers and venue, we take charge of coordinating with all your service providers to ensure a perfect schedule for your D-Day.
- Together, we will establish a detailed schedule for the wedding day using the WeddingPlan software. I will communicate to all service providers, managing logistical and technical aspects through a prior technical visit.
- We also create follow-up documents for your D-Day: procession, ceremony, DJ playlist...
- On your D-Day, I will be present with my team to orchestrate every detail, from arranging the decoration to welcoming the service providers and guests, ensuring the timing of your day is respected
- My service is to take you along from the preparations until the arrival of dessert or the first dance.
